STUDENT PREVIEW OF THE MARRIAGE OF FIGARO Thursday, October 26, 2023 @ 10:30am

- Performed in Italian with English supertitles
•Approximate length 2 hours 45 minutes (with intermission)

Music by WOLFGANG AMADEUS MOZART Libretto by LORENZO DA PONTE

The Marriage of Figaro is a funny and romantic show that is a great way to get into opera, musical story-telling, theater etiquette, and otherwise prepare students for an experience that, for some, will last a lifetime. Figaro and Susanna, start their wedding day planning the décor for their new apartment, a room that the Count has provided so that Susanna will be close as he plans to seduce her. Figaro is furious and vows to outsmart the Count. Together with Susanna, the neglected Countess, and a rascal page boy, Cherubino, he sets a clever trap with disguises, swapped identities, and secret messages – not to mention a lot of hiding in and under the furniture. Mozart at his sparkling, comedic best.
